NO DOGS ALLOWED!

Familiar to all as the beloved Maria from Sesame Street, Sonia Manzano crafts a delightful tale about one family's excursion from The Bronx to Enchanted State Park. Despite her parents warning not to do so, Iris sneaks her dog, El Exigente, into the family car already packed with cousins, aunts, uncles and "a few neighbors from the tri-state area." But it only takes a little bit of trouble to bring the whole caravan to a screeching halt.

Bus will leave from church at 9:00am and lunch served upon return.

Parents are welcome.
